"RED DEVILS & PENNY SHOOTERS"

The story behind the fascinating Frisbies of Cromwell, Connecticut — inventors, manufacturers and pioneers — of the people, places and marvelous innovations of their times. Of Russel and Charles Frisbie of the J.&E. Stevens foundry, the largest producer of cast-iron mechanical toy banks in the world — banks still highly prized by collectors for their astonishing mechanisms and whimsical characters that grab, and devour or shoot pennies from guns. Of Russell Abner Frisbie, who in 1900 invented one of the very first cars, the 1901 "Frisbie Red Devil."

Soft-cover, 28-pg., banks, toys, patent drawings, cars, motors & more. Only $16.99

"So, how do we get one?"
